

As a licensed professional electrical engineer, former holder of a radio telephone first class, and current holder of an amateur extra license; in my opinion BPL will very definitely cause heavy interference to users of HF radio communications. These radio services include FEMA, SHARES, CAP, and MARS.